" . . . Jeanne Fogle is the history teacher you wish you'd had every year in high school," The Washington Post

Fogle is ". . .the keeper of a vast store of historical anecdotes and legends," The Smithsonian Associate

Take a tour of the president's neighborhood with Jeanne Fogle, a native Washingtonian, local historian and premier storyteller in the Nation's Capital. If walls could talk, these are the stories the Lafayette Square homes and buildings would tell. Stories of love, scandal, diplomacy, tragedy, and success fill every corner of Lafayette Square. Over 150 years of anecdotes document the changes and celebrate the people and events of the most famous neighborhood in the country.

PROXIMITY TO POWER showcases Jeanne Fogle's special talent of bringing Washington's history alive. For nearly two centuries, no park in America has been better known than Lafayette Park and no group of homes has more stories to share than the historic homes on Lafayette Square.
